CRAWFORD—CHAMBERS.

Mr. Harry Crawford and Miss Mary Chambers Married Yesterday.

At the home of Rev. Dr. John Harbort yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock were united in holy matrimony Mr. Harry Crawford and Miss Mary Chambers.

The Minister used a pretty worded ceremony, which was impressive and sacred, because he, as the visible representative of the Almighty, gave expression to a living decree and sealed with his oath of allegiance that union which man nor Courts can sever righteously.

Mr. Crawford is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crawford of the West End of our city. He is a practical engineer on the steam City of Louisville, a frugal and energetic young man who is well balanced by that most excellent attribute, common sense.

His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Chambers of Clifton. She was attired in a beautiful organdie, her hair exquisitely arranged, and with a great bunch of roses she looked the very picture of a dainty, happy bride.

Mrs. Crawford is a beautiful girl full of domestic accomplishments and rightly trained for the duties of wifehood.

Miss Gertrude Tolle and Mr. Joseph Tolle were the attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford left at once for Buffalo to enjoy a honeymoon amid the loved-invested Pan-American Exposition buildings.

Upon their return they will begin housekeeping with happiness as their servant.

He is one of our best citizens and commands the respect and esteem of all of our people regardless of party affiliation. ## THE REBEKAH ASSEMBLY.

Sessions Closed Last Night With an Elegant Banquet.

OFFICERS ELECTED AND INSTALLED.

A memorial was presented at the morning session yesterday, asking that the Grand Lodge be petitioned to make suitable provision at the Widows and Orphans Home for supernatant old maids. It was represented that these worthy members of the Rebekah Lodges of our state are totally neglected and unprovided for under our present laws, and that they should not be required to take a business and then kill him in order to gain admission to the Home.

The discussion was finally ended by the Entertainment Committee extending an invitation to the old maids, young maids and widows present to visit Aberdeen, where it is expected that the shades of Esquiers Shelton and Bousley will assist to furnish a solution of the problem of what shall be done with the old maids.

Dick Elliott had just as well prepare for another year in his institution. The following officers were elected and installed at the afternoon session:

The appointed officers were also installed as follows:

The Standing Committee will be announced by the President in a few days.

Digests

what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

The process of digestion is simply explained. In the mouth, food is masticated and mixed with saliva containing a digestant called ptyalin. In the stomach, it is acted upon by gastric juice containing pepsin, which digests albuminous foods. In the intestines, pancreatin is added to digest fats and starches.

Indigestion always indicates an insufficient amount of one or all of these digestants. At first thought it seems proper to abstain from foods not easily digested; but reflection shows us that while this affords relief by giving the weakened organs less to do, it only makes them weaker by giving them less nourishment.

If you suffer from indigestion, the only right thing to do is to take a generous variety of food and digest it by using such a preparation as Kodol, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which contains all the known digestants, and completely digests what you eat.

It can't help but do you good

T. R. COLEMAN.

Last Sunday night hungry thieves visited the smokehouse of Elder L. T. Cole, a short distance above Dover, and took all the flour, meat and coffee he had. They also helped themselves to some knives and forks and some eggs.

Not satisfied with this, they crossed the railroad track to Elder Cole's broom factory and, entering by a window, took all the good brooms he had made up, leaving some inferior ones. They also went to the second story of the building and took the five bushels of onions stored there. The Dover News remarks that the Elder may console himself by the fact that some day he expects to live where "thieves do not break through nor steal."
